

Wickham named Cowboy of the Year

Bruce Campbell
Staff Writer

Sunday was a day Elk Point cowboy Darrell Wickham will never forget.

Not only did he win his first Lakeland Rodeo Association championship in the bareback competition at Polaris Arena, he was also named the recipient of the Leo Ferbey Memorial Award as the LRA Cowboy of the Year.

When his name was announced to the capacity crowd just before Sunday's final, "I was just stunned, I just couldn't believe it," Wickham said. "I was thinking about my bareback ride when I heard my name ... It's overwhelming. It symbolizes the respect that people have for you - the people that work to make rodeo prosper and grow."

"It really hits the heart to be Cowboy of the Year."

Wickham won the honor, not only for his prowess on a horse, but for his dedication to the rodeo and the LRA as well.

He joined the LRA in 1981 at the age of 16 and has served two terms on the LRA executive.

In an emotional speech Sunday, Wickham spoke highly of Ferbey, a stock contractor who was killed in an automobile accident.

"Leo really helped out in the early days," Wickham said. "He was always looking out for that Wickham kid."

"I don't know that I am worthy, but thanks a lot."

COWBOY OF THE YEAR - Darrell Wickham (left) is congratulated by Diane and Jim Bailey on his win of the Leo Ferbey Memorial Award presented annually to the Lakeland Rodeo Association's Cowboy of the Year.

It's taken Darrell Wickham 13 years, but on Sunday the Elk Point cowboy won his first LRA bareback championship.

"This is the goal you work for," Wickham said Sunday night. "And this year, I was lucky enough to win."

But it wasn't easy, he had to finish in the top four Sunday in order to claim the championship.

Wickham went into the final round with 100 points - just 10 points ahead of Larry Arthur.

Arthur, riding just before Wickham, scored a 70.5 aboard Zip Code, to put him in fourth place in Sunday's go-round - good for 10 points and a tie with Wickham.

If Wickham hadn't beat

MILESTONE CELEBRATED - Pan Canadian's Heavy Oil GM, Dennis Chorney, and Executive Secretary Bev Brolund serve up the pump jack-decked cake commemorating the 100,000 barrel milestone.

Pan Canadian celebrates 100,000 barrel milestone Production goal reached August 11, 1993

Pan Canadian Petroleum is jubilant over reaching a 100,000 barrel per day production milestone, a huge increase from last year's mark of 60,000 barrels per day. The 100,000 barrel goal was reached August 11 of this year.

The Elk Point district, which produces 12,000 of those daily barrels, celebrated the achievement with a "100,000 Barrel Bash" last Friday, beginning with a very enjoyable golf tournament for employees, contractors, suppliers and other guests, and continuing into the evening with a banquet, prize draws and a dance.

Special guests, who flew in from Calgary for the Fall Golf Classic and the celebration, included Pan Canadian's General Manager of Heavy Oil Production Dennis Chorney, executive secretary Bev Brolund, geological coordinator Dick Walker, engineering coordinator Vinod Raja, and engineering department staff member Peter Mroz.

Area Superintendent Bryan Campbell thanked the many people responsible for the success of the celebration, including the Senior Girls Volleyball Team, who babysat during the tournament, the Empress Restaurant for their fine meal, the Elks Lodge for operating the bar, and "an awful lot of volunteers" who did the planning. The golf tournament was arranged by the "Mannville Marauders," led by Dan Yake, the supper by the Social Club, led by Dennis Holthe, and the decorations by a group led by Monique Primeau and Ian Huffman. Corporate prizes were arranged by the Troubleshooter Team, while the appreciation prizes, going to major and minor service vendors, were arranged by the Social Club. The overall coordinators were Joely Jenner and Doria Moneta.

Dan Yake presented golf trophies and coolers to the tournament champs, Bill and Adella Jennissen, Brenda Patroch and Brian Anderson, while cooler bags went to Mark and Holly James, Don and Lynn Burdett. Adrian Ewasiuk won a putter for the longest putt, while Ian Dunbar won booster cables and Jeannette Brown a golf bag for the longest drives in the men's and ladies' categories.

A trip for two to Las Vegas was won by a very lucky Gary Ballas.

Division 2 ratepayers input welcome

Danyluk hosting public meeting

Division 2 ratepayers will have an opportunity to voice their concerns to County Councillor Ray Danyluk later this week, when he holds the second in his series of public input meetings at the Empress Banquet Room. All interested individuals are welcome to attend.

"I'm trying to give the people a voice, and to get their concerns heard," Danyluk said. "If they don't come and tell me, I can't take it to Council."

While Danyluk is far from guaranteeing he has the answers to every question, he is more than willing to search for the answers and solutions the ratepayers require.

The meeting is scheduled for Thursday night, September 9, at 8 o'clock. Coffee will be served.

Chamber starts new season

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce got their new fall and winter season underway September 1, with discussion of upcoming events and a review of summer activities.

Dale Panteluk, motivational speaker for tonight's session of the Chamber and Town's Local Economic Development Workshop, visited the Chamber to obtain background information regarding types of businesses, economic climate and development priorities, in preparation for the workshop.

The Chamber agreed to participate at two perennial fall events, the Community Services Information Night and F.G. Miller High School Awards Night.

President Louise Crane urged Chamber and Town representation at the Lakeland Tourist Association meeting which will take place at Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre on September 11. She feels the Chamber and the community are not getting good value for

Fall Rendezvous

Buckskin, black powder and Buckingham House are featured in this coming weekend's Fall Rendezvous celebration at Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre. Visitors are invited to relive the sights, sounds and smells of northern Alberta's historic fur trade on Saturday, September 9.

A special highlight of this year's celebration is the dedication of a plaque by Parks Canada to honor the founding factor of Buckingham House, William Tomison. The official ceremony starts at 1:00 p.m. and will be followed by a performance by the Northern Lights Metis Dancers, music by the Homer Poitras Band and a black powder musket demonstration by the Edmonton House Black Powder Brigade, as well as a reception with fur-trade refreshments.

Don't miss this afternoon of entertainment and history brought to life as we recall the lives and activities of the fur traders who roamed north-east Alberta two centuries ago. Fort George - Buckingham House is just 13 km southeast of Elk Point, via Secondary Highway 646.

What's Happening At COMMUNITY SERVICES

"Children Learn Through Play" has been an expression used by people in the Early Childhood profession for a long time. As the child's parent, you may ask what does the statement - children learn through play - mean? OR, you may ask, how can I influence the child's play so that the child's growth and developmental needs are met?

Questions such as these will be explored at a workshop on Thursday, September 16 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Further Education Building in Elk Point. Our guest speaker is Ms Alice Stewart, who is the head of the Early Childhood Department of Lakeland College at the Vermilion Campus.

We look forward to learning more about this topic as we know Ms Stewart will cover the material in a very interesting and informative manner. Ms Stewart is also the instructor for the Learning Through Play course in the Early Childhood Department.

The registration fee is $2.50 and to register, or for more information, call 724-3800. This workshop is sponsored by Elk Point Child Care Services, Elk Point Further Education, Parent Nursery and Jack and Jill Playschool.

INFORMATION NIGHT

Information Night, hosted by Community Services, will be held on Tuesday, September 21 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Community Services Centre.

This is an opportunity for organizations and clubs to inform the community about their club's purpose, goals and activities. It also provides an opportunity to socialize and learn about the excellent services and programs available in Elk Point and area. At present we have 33 different organizations who have responded and will be attending. It's a "must attend" for any newcomers in the area. If your organization has been missed and you wish to attend, please contact Lynn at 724-3800.

This year there is a special attraction. The Elk Point Public Library will be featuring "Wormsworth," a green, 7 foot high, 50 foot long book-worm. Bring your children down to see him. Wormsworth needs up to 50 children to help him move his tail.

Volunteers are still needed to assist with the setup and delivery of this event. The commitment would be a couple of hours during the day or a couple of hours in the evening. Call 724-3800 if you can help.

TERRY FOX RUN

The planning for the Terry Fox Run is well underway. The event has been planned to take place on Sunday, September 19 and will start and end at the Recreation Park Picnic Shelter. The run consists of a 10 km course and you may complete as much of it as you would like. Registration will take place at 1:30 p.m. and the race starts at 2:00 p.m. This year it will be scenic and challenging. Following the run we will be having a weiner roast for the participants and volunteers.

Participants do not have to run if they don't want to: they can run, walk, ride a bike, use a wheel chair, push someone in a stroller, etc. Please pick up your pledge sheet at the various businesses in town or call Community Services. I have attached a map to each of the forms for your information. There will be prizes for the oldest person to complete the course, youngest person to complete the course, and the person who brings in the most money.

This year we also have t-shirts for sale. If anyone is interested they can contact Lynn at 724-3800.

If you are unable to participate, then volunteer to help with the water table. There are many volunteer positions available. If you think you can help for an hour or two the day of the event, or if you want more information, please call Lynn at 724-3800.

ELK POINT CHILD CARE SERVICES LOOKS AT THE NEEDS OF YOUR CHILD

Although all children have the same basic needs, each child has unique needs. Each parent is aware of the particular needs of their child. Therefore, as each parent chooses the Family Day Home for their child, the child's needs are considered.

A basic need of all children is the need for safe and healthy surroundings.

In order to grow intellectually, all children also need to be able to experiment, to observe, and to explore their surroundings.

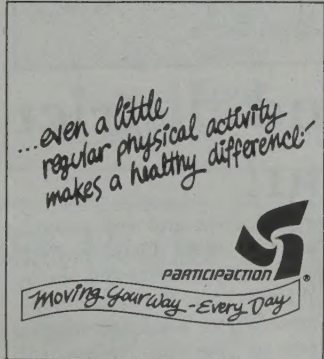

Physically, all children need both active and quiet activities, indoors and outdoors.

The social needs of children include the need to interact with friends and adults, to participate as a member of a group, and to have the opportunity to learn and develop social skills.

To meet their emotional needs, all children must feel accepted, respected, secure and to be listened to and understood.

No one child care arrangement is ideal for all children, and not every Family Day Home will be ideal for your child. You, the parent, must choose the Family Day Home that best suits your child. After all, you know your child best!

If you are interested in choosing a Family Day Home for your child, please contact Deanna Easthope, Coordinator, for more information at 724-3933 or the Community Services office on Fridays at 724-3800.

HELPING YOU HELPS ME

Did you know that one out of every four Canadians over the age of 15 is a volunteer for a charitable or non profit organization? Most claim that being a volunteer helps them as well as their cause. For example, through volunteer work, people learn skills that help them deal with people and problems more effectively. Now, new research shows that volunteering may also be good for your heart, your immune system and your overall vitality. Virtue is its own reward. And then some...

International Literacy Day - September 8

Wednesday, September 8 is International Literacy Day, a time for the public to be aware that some 5 million Canadians are functionally illiterate. That means that 5 million Canadians are not able to cope with daily functions requiring reading, writing and arithmetic.

They can't write a cheque.

They can't read instructions on medications.

They can't read warnings on dangerous products.

They can't read road signs... or newspapers... books... or maps.

If you know an adult who wants to learn to read and write English or work on math skills, please tell them about LEARN (Literacy Education and Reading Network). LEARN provides one-to-one tutoring, confidentiality and support.

LEARN also needs volunteer tutors. Volunteers are required to have a high school reading level and should want to donate time each week to their student.

For more information, please call Tamara at Lakeland College in St. Paul at 645-3276.

LEARN FOR A LIFETIME - Diane Fraess of Elk Point Public Library is one of the LEARN Project tutors. She displays some of the many books the library offers for adult beginning readers, which have interesting themes but an easily read format.

Grandpa's Story

"Grandpa, read me a story," she said.
"I always get one before going to bed.
This is my favorite, come take a look!"
Grandpa reluctantly picked up the book.
He opened the cover and turned to page one.
She sat there in silence until he was done.
Then she turned to him with a look of dismay
And said, "Mom doesn't read it that way!
The part about the mirror on the wall,
Well, you didn't read me that poem at all!
And that lady isn't just rich and conceited,
She's a mean, evil witch who must be defeated!
Those seven little men, you got them all wrong.
They're dwarfs, not midgets, and you must sing their song!
The name of that girl, you didn't get right,
She's not plain old Mary...her name is Snow White."
"But," Grandpa said, "I changed it for you,
I wanted to make it exciting and new."
"I'm sorry," she whispered and then hung her head.
"You're the best Grandpa ever and I love you," she said.
His heart felt heavy as he avoided her eyes.
Over the years he had told many lies.
He didn't know she would love him despite
He had never learned how to read or to write.

The greatest gift

The greatest gift my mother ever gave me was the ability to read and write.

Actually, I can't remember NOT being able to read, and they tell me I was reading the headlines in the Calgary Herald by age four, even though I probably had very little idea what the words really meant. You can tell a preschooler that a "Louis St. Laurent" is the Prime Minister, but then, "what's a prime minister?" For that matter, what's an "Iwo Jima?" They showed me THAT on the big world map on the kitchen wall, with which the family had kept track of what was happening where in World War II.

From learning to read - I accumulated stacks of books, my older siblings' discards, those received for gifts, and once I received an allowance, those I saved up and bought - I went on to writing: letters, stories, catalogue orders, envelopes for a make-believe post office, lessons for playing school. And then: my own newspaper. I wrote the stories, drew the pictures, designed the masthead and made up classified ads and advice columns, all for a town largely populated by cats, who roamed all over our barn and were my frequent companions. It didn't matter that they couldn't read - I read it to them.

Due to a disagreement between my father and the Municipal District over whether our road should be gravelled and thus permit a school bus to travel it, I was home schooled until Grade 7. My mother had been a teacher prior to motherhood, and did an admirable job of teaching me the 3 Rs. Spelling and grammar were two things I was not allowed to shirk upon, and reading was much encouraged.

Isolation from the rest of the world provided considerable time to read, and when I wasn't reading, I was writing. When at last I went to school, I still hurried through my homework so I could read my library books. Even today, I reserve the evening hours other family members spend watching television to poke my nose into a book.

Literacy plays a major role in my life. I cannot imagine it otherwise, and mourn for those who have never had the advantages of being able to read and write.

Heritage Day

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the descendants of James Spence, Sr., and William A. Flett, Sr., I want to convey our gratitude to all those people who contributed in any way to the success of our recent Reunion over the Heritage EDay weekend in Elk Point.

To you and Faye and Isabella for your assistance and excellent coverage prior to and at the event, and to the following persons: Louise Crane and staff at Fort George - Buckingham House Interpretive Centre; Sherry and Jordan Pelech, Visitors' Information Centre; Lillian Palinka and Sid Holthe, Seniors' Recreation Centre; Steve Andrishak, Fort George Museum; Peggy and Ed Zaraska; Susan and John Yakemchuk, Fort George Motel and Campground; Louis Verhagen, and last but not least, Jean Slywka and staff, Empress Family Restaurant, and Pat Johnson, our warmest gratitude to all.

Sincerely,
Shirley Wishart
Calgary, AB

Elk Point and district ... thank you!

The footings for the buildings are now in place at Fort George, thanks to the following sponsors: Vincent Lumber, Phil's Hardware, Pan-Canadian Petroleum, and those hard working lads at Shamrock Valley Enterprises who donated labor, a torch and an auger.

Thank you to the 22 volunteers who donated most of a nice weekend to provide the tools and labor needed. They came from all over the County, Lloydminster, Calgary and even Michigan! This type of volunteerism is appreciated not only by Historic Sites but by the future visitors who have more to see at Fort George. A rough estimate of tax dollar savings that our crew saved Albertans - $2500. Next year...Buckingham House.

Speaking of volunteers... Help is needed to close off the year with our Fall Rendezvous. A volunteer meeting is being held September 9 at 7 p.m. at the Forts. Parks Canada is providing most of the organization and will provide three of their staff. We will need some help in the set up on Friday and Saturday mornings. If you need transportation to the site, please call 724-2600.

Fall Rendezvous... weather permitting, this should be a super event. We are getting good response from all over Alberta and other parts of Canada. Come on out and enjoy the last public day of the 1993 season. Site Hours for September 11 only -- 12 noon until 5 p.m. Parks Canada dedication starts at 1 p.m. and will be held at the Buckingham House site. Transportation will be provided to the site by van for those unable to use the path. If the weather does not cooperate, we will have the ceremonies in the Interpretive Centre. Randy Chappel and the Edmonton House Black Powder Brigade will have demonstrations prior to and after the dedication. Come and join us in the celebration and music of a traditional Fall Rendezvous!!

Parents protest tuition

Isabell Shoff
Staff Writer

Derwent parents met with the County of Two Hills Board of Education last night in a final effort to get the board to help pay for tuition costs to Elk Point.

The County of St. Paul, which looks after schools in Elk Point, levied a $2,020.73 tuition fee on students residing outside the county last month in an effort to stop students from coming into the county from outside. Last year there was a nil tuition agreement and 16 students from Derwent attended the Elk Point School.

This year, with the uncertainty of the Derwent School at stake, six families from around the area met with the board to request financial assistance.

One of these families are the Malachowskis who live 12 miles south of Derwent.

Marlene Malachowski has two boys, Jason, who's entering Gr. 11, and Justin, who's entering Gr. 7. Both are affected by the tuition increase.

Malachowski said her children used to attend the Derwent School, but she pulled them out three years ago after the school went to a triple grading system. A triple grading system means each student is required to take one part of three different grades each year.

She said she was also told three years ago to send her children to Myrnam, but felt worried that the Myrnam School would close down before her children were finished at that time.

"They couldn't tell us just how long the Myrnam School was going to stay open," Malachowski said.

So Marlene packed up her two boys and drove them to school every day in Elk Point without any compensation. She said she didn't mind driving them last year, but there's no way she can afford to pay tuition on top of gas this year.

Now, she figures, it's time for the board to help out.

"We want the county to pay this because it's their fault they didn't do any long-term planning," Malachowski said.

"We don't want our kids to have to change schools again."

Debbie Warawa is another parent who has joined together with Malachowski to get tuition support.

Warawa has three children affected by the tuition increase - Tyson, entering Gr. 10, Tyler, Gr. 8, and Tori, Gr. 6.

Like Malachowski, she said there's no way she could ever afford tuition.

"We want them (the board) to deal with this issue," Warawa said.

"There are 14 kids affected altogether and if they pay tuition for each of them it's still under $30,000. They can't even put in one teacher for that price."

Warawa said she had a meeting with her MLA Steve West and Education Minister Halvar Jonson in early August to discuss the tuition problem and found out that the board of education, which closed the junior high portion of the Derwent School two years ago and had supposedly closed the elementary portion earlier this year, had not followed the proper procedures.

Jonson, in turn, informed the board at their Aug. 24 meeting, that therefore, the

WHAT'S NEWS AT THE LIBRARY?

We would like to note the CORRECT library hours for September: Monday: 2 - 5 p.m.; Tuesday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Wednesday: 2 - 9 p.m.; Thursday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Friday: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; with Storytime at 10:30 a.m. on Fridays.

WHO'S WORMSWORTH? He's coming soon!!!

We have two gorgeous display cases that were donated by the Royal Canadian Legion No. 151, which are available for anyone who would like to display their hobbies, or social groups (such as Lions, Girl Guides, etc.) that would like to display some of their information. If you would like to display something, just let us know!!

We have a change in staff occurring this week also. Susan Walchuk will be finished the eight month automation project. We would like to say a fond farewell to Susan, and thank her for the work that she has done, and wish her good luck with her future plans. We also have Donna McGregor starting this week on another six month project with the library.

New Books

The following titles are now on our shelves, and look to be of interest to all. We have The Shining Ones by David Edgings, that has monsters terrorizing Tamuli, these beings could melt human flesh by the slightest touch.

Tom Clancy's newest Without Remorse is the latest story about John Kelly. If you liked The Sum of All Fears, this looks to be another exciting novel.

Star Flight by Phyllis A. Whitney spins a chilling tale of Lauren Castle's search for the truth behind her husband's accidental death and her famous grandmother's suicide.

Parents should find Purberty: An Illustrated Manual For Parents and Daughters to be very helpful for some of life's most difficult questions.

Wickham

Arthur's 70.5 there would have been a ride off for the championship.

"I knew I had to try and overcome his score," he said. "I just tried to stay focused on the task ahead and try not to pressure up - try to focus on the horse."

Wickham rode Rough Crossing for the full eight seconds for a score of 74 and 15 points to clinch his first championship.

One thing he won't forget about his final ride is "All the other cowboys, including Larry Arthur were right there at the chute helping me out and cheering me on.

"That tell you something about the camaraderie in rodeo."

Derwent parents

Derwent School could not be officially closed.

He said that due to a technicality in a letter that went out to Derwent parents, the school was to stay open until at least Sept. 7 to allow parents an opportunity to register their children at Derwent if they so desired.

As of last Friday, five elementary children were registered at Derwent.

But Alex Boyda, County of Two Hills superintendent of schools, said, prior to the meeting, that he was hoping to convince parents to change their minds.

"On the agenda tonight is a discussion as to whether to pay tuition for those five kids so they'll go outside the county," Boyda said, hinting that then the school could be officially closed.

Last week, Boyda was forced to hire a substitute teacher for the five elementary children in the program at Derwent.

But parents like Warawa and Malachowski, who brought their junior high kids to the school last week, were turned away by Boyda because there was no teacher available to instruct them.

According to him, it would cost approximately $63,000 to keep the school open for one year for the five students based on last year's costs with $50,000 being the maximum payout for a teacher, operating and maintenance at $8,000 and programming at $5,000.

"It's quite a bit," Boyda said.

Chamber news

their membership dollars in that organization. Others present at the meeting agreed that alternative ways of tourist promotion may be necessary, in lieu of LTA membership, which has brought only minimal service this year.

Tentative plans for a Mayor's Prayer Breakfast were brought forth by Sid Holthe, organizer of the very successful 1991 breakfast. He has a top notch speaker lined up and is now looking for sponsorship. The Chamber agreed to be one of the sponsors for the event, probably to be held in early November.

While Elk Point has just under half of the 3000 population needed to participate in a Main Street development program, this may not stop the Chamber from spearheading a similar type of project on their own, possibly using a government work program labor for upkeep and maintenance of public areas in the community. Further discussion of the concept is scheduled for a Chamber meeting later in the fall.

Elk Point's bank managers gave their input on a request from the Chamber regarding the possibility of installing an automated teller machine in Elk Point. Gord Henry of the Toronto Dominion Bank said chances of having one added to his branch "aren't good" due to the cost of operation and the design of their building, which would not adapt well to accommodate the machine. Mel Ryks said the Treasury Branch would have a more appropriate area, but that there are "major hurdles to overcome." For example, ATMs are normally only located in towns of 2500 plus population. However, the issue is being reviewed by his head office and the issue is "not dead yet."

Residence break-in

Elk Point RCMP are currently investigating a break-and-enter which occurred to a residence approximately 7 miles south of Elk Point while the home owners were away on vacation. Items taken from the residence include a Lazer Printer, a TV and VCR, as well as a complete Sony stereo system including a receiver, tape deck, compact disk player and laser disk player.

This occurrence is still under investigation, and anyone with any information is asked to contact the Elk Point RCMP or Crime Stoppers.

Heads UP.

There's a fine line between safe and sorry.

Electricity is a fact of life. In fact, it's so much a part of everyday life that people forget the potential for accidents. Any contact with overhead power lines or exposed wires can cause serious injury. And underground power lines are equally dangerous to anyone who digs without locating them. Understanding how electricity works can keep you, and those close to you, safe. When it comes to electricity, what you don't know can hurt you. For more information on electrical safety, call your local Alberta Power office.
